WILDE MUST GO TO JAIL

He is This Morning Charged With a Heinous Crime and is Refused Bail.

Evidence Already Given. If True, Proves His Guilt—Taylor Arraigned.

London, April 6.—Wilde's friend, Taylor, was arrested to-day. Wilde was arraigned this morning charged with inciting young men to commit a foul crime, and also having committer the crime himself. Alfred Taylor was placed in the prisoners' dock, charged with being an accessory to Wilde's crimes. Wilde greeted Taylor smilingly.

A young man named Parker was the first witness examined. He testified regarding his introduction to Wilde by Taylor, the meetings between Wilde and witness, conversation and conduct at the meetings. He swore he received money and presents from Wilde. Parker's story, if true, proves the case against Wilde. Counsel for defendant reserved his right to cross-examine Parker.

Wilde and Taylor were remanded, bail being refused.

The Westminster Gazette, commenting on the Wilde case, says: "The case proves that it is unsafe to say that art has nothing to do with immorality. Wilde's art rests on a basis of rottenness and corruption."

SHOULD OWN THE MACHINES.

So Say the K. of L. Officials to the Printers.

Philadelphia, April 6.—The officials of the Knights of Labor have issued a sort of semi-ultimatum to the printers in the leading cities of the country, who have been affected by the introduction of typesetting machines. It says that the machines ought to belong to the printers, and that they will belong to the printers in a mighty short time, if the latter would only organize themselves and their fellow workmen into the Knights and join hands to establish a co-operative system. If they will do this, then, before two years have gone by, victory would be won and the machines would belong to the men.

CLAIMS OF THE SEALERS.

Some Questions to be Asked in the House of Commons on Tuesday Next.

President Cleveland Makes Some Suggestions Regarding a Conference.

London, April 6.—The government will be asked on Tuesday next in the house whether it will refuse the joint conference proposed by the United States to deal with the seal fisheries question in the north Pacific, unless the conference is constructed on the lines suggested by the Paris tribunal to deal with the whole question. Also whether an assent to join said conference involves interference with the decision of the Paris tribunal.

The government will be further asked in the house if it will advance as a loan to the Canadian sealers, a portion of the sum awarded as indemnity at the Paris tribunal, pending the final settlement of the award by the United States.

Washington, April 6.—The notice given in the House of Commons in England to-day regarding the new conference on the seal fisheries, has reference to a dispatch from Gresham to Pauncefote in which the former stated that the pelagic slaughter of seals has convinced the President that the regulations of the Paris tribunal were inadequate and the President suggested that England, Russian and Japan appoint a commission to visit the American and Asiatic shores of the north sea and report proper measures to protect seals in the meantime. The President further suggested that the regulations now in force regarding sealing be extended along the line of the 35th degree of north latitude from the American to the Asiatic shore, and that sealing in the locality mentioned and in Behring Sea be prohibited for the season. Russia and Japan have intimated their willingness to acquiesce.

Regarding the query to be made in the commons about the Canadian indemnity, it is stated that no sum was awarded by the Paris tribunal, which simply decided that damages were due. Gresham on this finding made a proposition to pay a certain sum which Pauncefote acquiesced in.

AMERICAN DISPATCHES.

News in Brief From all Parts of the Great Republic.

Jersey City, April 6.—The strike of the unpaid workmen of the Terra Cotta works at Spa Springs, has been practically ended. Arrangements have been made by the receiver of the works with the banks whereby he will be able to pay the men daily. Two hundred of the men returned to work to-day and more will follow.

Montpelier, April 6.—A passenger train, east bound on the Wabash, was fired upon last night. The fireman was shot in the head fatally. None of the passengers were injured.

New York, April 6.—Gregory, who murdered his wife last night, was arrested this morning at his home on Hudson street. He had shot himself, probably fatally.

Washington, April 6.—Attorney-General Olney to-day published a dispatch to United States Attorney Clark, asking if he and Marshal Mackay participated in the meeting of Cuban sympathizers and Clark's reply emphatically denying that himself or the marshal "participated." The press agent at Jacksonville reiterates that both were present. The denials of the officials it will be noted are restricted to "participated."

"THE SUICIDE PLACE."

Farm on Which Three men Have Committed Suicide.

Lockport, N. Y. April 6.—The farm of Rufus Powell on a lonely road near Somersetville has been named "The Suicide Place." In 1875, Wm. Nellest, who owned the farm cut his throat. Ten years later his son Thomas was found hanging from a tree near where his father died. Willie Carpentar, a lad of fourteen went to work for Rufus Powell, who had bought the farm three years ago. Thursday morning he was found hanging from the hay fork rope in the barn, dead.

HE INSISTS ON FULL PAY

Fitzsimmons, Deputy Warden, Has Been Pulling the String at the Capital.

Another Departmental Officer at Ottawa Dismissed For Irregularities.

Ottawa, April 6.—James Fitzsimmons, the re-instated deputy warden of the B. C. penitentiary, left for home last night. He is now insisting that full pay be given him during his suspension. Tupper will have to concede it to be consistent in his setting aside of the royal commission report.

Hamel, assistant engineer of the public works department, has been suspended for irregularities in his department.

Hon. W. B. Ives, minister of trade and commerce, received a cable message from the high commissioner to-day stating that Treasurer Ward, of New Zealand, at present in London, had intimated the willingness of his government to negotiate a trade arrangement with Canada on a preferential basis. Mr. Ives immediately cabled asking the nature of the proposed arrangement previous to authorizing him to discuss the matter officially with Mr. Ward.

The revenue for March shows a net falling off of $800,000.

A syndicate of Ottawa people have secured an important charter from the legislative council of Jamaica to introduce an electric railway system in that island.

Lieut.-Col. W. P. Anderson, president of the Rifle League, has been restored to the active list for his services in promoting rifle shooting.

Permission has been given to change the name of the steamer State of Idaho, of Westminster, to Alberta.

Four hundred and sixty acres of land lying north of the Pitt river and lake have been set apart for the use of the Katzie Indians.

NANAIMO NEWS.

Mr. Archibald to Take Charge of the Telegraph Office.

Nanaimo, April 6.—The affairs of the corporation appear to have become quite extensive judging from the numerous officials to be appointed. A city clerk, auditor, assessor, collector, police court clerk and solicitors are required. It is, however, anticipated that the present city clerk will receive the appointment and one if not two of the remaining officials dispensed with. W. K. Leighton has been appointed auditor.

The New Vancouver Coal Company has completed arrangements for the removal of the present supreme court building.

Building operations are expected to assume a brighter aspect in the course of two or three weeks. It is expected that the erection of the new government buildings will be started. Nothing definite has been done in regard to the new school house.

W. F. Archibald will shortly take the place of Mr. Dee as local manager of the C. P. R. telegraph office. Mr. Dee goes to Vancouver to fill a more important position.

NO FURTHER EVIDENCE.

Shocking Discovery in an Empty Tenement House.

St. Paul, Minn., April 6.—A shocking discovery was made yesterday in an upper room of the hotel La Crescent. On the lower floor lives Mrs. Charles Jelnk and her seven children. For three months she has been living with the belief that her husband had deserted her. The second story of the house is untenanted and when Mr. Cameron, the owner, went to open the doors one of them was locked and when he tried to open it a weight on the other side prevented him. On the floor lay the body of Jelnk. The cord around his neck and the door knob told the story of his suicide.

A STRICT DISCIPLINARIAN.

School Teacher Who Used a Revolver to Keep Order.

Macon, Ga., April 6.—The sheriff of Worth county, while arresting a school teacher, found in his possession a pistol with which he kept order in school. The sheriff made a case against him and had the teacher sentenced to twelve months in the chain gang.

MURDERED BY A MANIAC.

A Rancher Torn to Pieces by a Mad Man.

Sioux City, April 6.—C. E. Converse, a wealthy rancher living near Jefferson, a small town in this vicinity, met a horrible death last night at the hands of a maniac, who imagined himself to be a vampire and attacking his victim, literally devoured him alive. The lunatic met Converse as he was returning home from town late last night. Instantly he set upon him, dragged him to the mountains and tore him to pieces with his teeth and nails. Nothing was known of the affair till next morning when the man appeared at Jefferson covered with blood and began to boast of his exploit. The lunatic is supposed to have escaped from an asylum.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR CUBA

Spanish Troops Are Preparing to Search the Island for Insurgents.

Nearly Forty Thousand Men Will be at the Disposal of General Campos.

Havana, April 5.—At daybreak yesterday morning a battalion of Spanish troops marched out from the fortress of Cubana, which lies westward on the hills of Moro castle. They were led to the railway from which trains travel south across the island to Battabanno. It is at that port that the government troops are being forwarded to the eastern districts of Cuba, and when the battalion en route shall have reached Santiago de Cuba all the troops newly arrived from Spain will have been mobilized at that point. When all are there, there will be a grand review, and then the hunt for the insurgents will begin.

General Campos, who is to have command of the government troops in Cuba.

Meanwhile the organization of the troops by the commander is being effected. There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The forces will number something over 4000. At the palace of the governor-general the writer was informed that when all the troops from Spain shall have arrived there will be available against the rebellion about 32,000 men. This number covers troops already arrived here from the standing army of Cuba and all volunteers and guerillas. The last named are not the guerrillas familiar to the states, but are separate companies enlisted for a specified time and purpose. Regular officers and men are to be assigned to these troops to drill and lead them in battle. These officers receive for their services $30 per month, and the men receive $25. While awaiting the arrival of the troops leaving here the forces now in the disturbed districts began searching in the chaparal for insurrectionists.

An interesting bit of news comes from Santiago de Cuba. A correspondent writing under date of March 25 states that he has been looking into the Alliance affair, and makes the statement that the Alliance was hailed and displayed the American flag, not that of England, as reported by the commander of the Conde de Venadito.

On Sunday last the government here freely announced that the rebel chief Maceo had sailed from Costa Rica on the Atlas line steamer Dierronbach and that he had not arrived on the soil of Cuba. On the same evening there was information in Havana that Maceo had effected a landing and is now on Cuban soil among his followers. The land lines of telegraph westward of the islands are in a wretched condition. The government frankly states that there is serious interruption. There is communication along the coast by cable, but the land lines, which are not so much needed in times of peace, are now vital and are to be fixed up. The lines are said to be strung on trees wherever possible and the necks of beer and other bottles have been used as insulators. There are those who believe the Spanish government has paid sums that were supposed to properly maintain those lines.

The autonomistic party here favors such a relation of Cuba to Spain as is sustained by England and her colonies. Independence is not desired. A meeting of the party was held yesterday to deplore the rebellion and offer aid to Spain. The same action has been taken by the autonomists of Puerto Rico. Resolutions embodying these views have been forwarded to Rafael Maria de Labra, the Cuban leader of the party in Spain.

OREGON WHEAT DAMAGED.

At Least Half the Fall Sown Wheat Damaged.

Pendleton, Or., April 5.—Numerous farmers who have been interviewed agree that great damage has been done to wheat by cold weather, and that at least one-half of the fall sown wheat between Pendleton and Athena must be resown. Dozens of fields are now being plowed. Last year sowing was not finished earlier than April 20th, so they think there remains ample time to put the seed in the land. Various theories are advanced to account or the dying of the wheat. It is said the soil was too loose and gave the cold an opportunity to reach the tender shoots. The freezing was in spots.

SHIP SARGENT DISMANTLED.

She Arrives in San Francisco from Seattle Under Jury Sails.

San Francisco, April 5.—The American ship C. F. Sargent was towed into port yesterday in a dismantled condition, and with other evidences on her of having passed a heavy stress of weather. Her jibboom was missing and her main topgallant mast was gone, while the stump stuck up from the deck to show where her foremast stood.

The vessel sailed from Seattle seventeen days ago, and had fair weather until she was nearing her destination. On the 31st ult., in latitude 41.50 north and longitude 126 west a succession of squalls was encountered, during which the damage was done. A jury mast was rigged on the fore stump, and with considerable labor the Sargent managed to make port. Her ill-luck stayed by her, for when she was within 100 feet of Main street wharf she went aground in the mud, and there the tug left her.

P. S. ALASKA SURVEY PARTY.

Steamship Patterson Being Fitted Out the Trip North.

San Francisco, April 5.—The United States steamship Patterson is now being fitted up here for a trip to Alaska with a party of surveyors, who will work on the boundary lines during the summer. The harbors about Sitka will also be sounded and a map made of their findings. Capt. Moore will be in command of the expedition. The party will be engaged up north for three years.

A big supply of coal will be taken on at Puget Sound, and a steam launch will be towed along in order to work in shallow inlets successfully. The first surveying will be done in Portland inlet. This is where the boundary line begins, and much dispute has arisen of late over this point between the United States and British America. The boundaries seem to overlap each other, and it will be the duty of Capt. Moore's men to solve this problem for the government.

AN EX-MAYOR DEAD.

M. A. Maclean, Formerly Mayor of Vancouver, is Dead.

M. A. Maclean, formerly mayor of Vancouver, is dead at the terminal city. Mr. Maclean had been sick for six weeks. Deceased was a native of Scotland and emigrated to Oshawa, Ont. He was a citizen of Dundas, Toronto and Winnipeg, and came to Vancouver in 1885, engaging in business with A. W. Ross, M.P. In 1886 Mr. Maclean was elected mayor of Vancouver. During Vancouver's struggle after the great fire he took a very active part in helping the sufferers. He was a justice of the peace, and was recently appointed stipendary magistrate for Vancouver. He was president of St. Andrew's society, Caledonian society, Highland society and Pioneer society. Deceased leaves a wife and two children.

VICTORIEN SARDOU

The Great Dramatist.

The mobile features of this great man are seen above. Sardou is the great wizard of the stage, clothing his characters in flesh and blood, and making them live. He makes, not mummies, but men and women, as witness the realistic portrayals of Bernhardt, — chiefly the master's thought. When body and brain are weary with work, anything that will drive away the blues must possess a great value. It is the verdict of Sardou that "Vin Mariani," the great tonic-stimulant, possesses this subtle power. This is what the great man says: "'Vin Mariani' is perfect, gives health, drives away the blues, and is of such excellent quality that whoever tastes it might almost desire to be forever debilitated and depressed, thus to have a pretext to drink it." Celebrated men and women, the world over, have spoken similarly of the stimulating, nourishing effects of "Vin Mariani" upon body and brain. A preparation from pure grapes and carefully selected coca leaves, "Vin Mariani" is more tonic than quinine, and yet it never constipates. For the convalescent it is invaluable; for all enfeebled people, it has a magic restorative property. Send your name to Lawrence A. Wilson & Co., Montreal, the Canadian Agents, and you will receive an album containing the portraits of a large number of celebrated people, who have used "Vin Mariani" with wonderful results, and who speak highly of it.

THE FRENCH POSITION.

M. Hanotaux Answers Sir Edmund Grey's Statement.

Paris, April 5.—M. Hanotaux, minister of foreign affairs, spoke in the senate this evening concerning Sir Edmund Grey's statement in the House of Commons last week as to the British and Egyptian spheres of influence in Africa. Those statements, he said, had astonished him. France opposes decidedly the pretensions of the Royal Niger company who aim to monopolize the trade of a vast region. Negotiations as to the territory affected by the company's claims are now in progress. As to the Upper Nile region France demanded that England state her claims explicitly. France would reserve her decision and liberty of action pending England's reply. Though it is advisable to abstain from imprudent statements, France will maintain her rights. He preferred, however, not to make any affirmations likely to hinder present negotiations. He was convinced that when the time for decision should come the two great nations would find a means of reconciling their interests with those of civilization and progress.

NEWS OF THE INTERIOR.

Number of Claims Bonded in the Kettle River District.

MIDWAY.
Midway Advance.

The bridge over Kettle river at Ingram's was completed last week, and is now open for traffic. Foreman McInnes with his crew of men has moved over to the west of Camp McKinney, and is paying attention to the fixing up of the main trunk road. In the near vicinity of the camp the road was left last fall in rather an unfinished condition, so that the attention being paid to it will give satisfaction to those having to make use of it.

As a result of the mild winter and the fine open spring, seeding has commenced at Grand Prairie and now goes merrily on. Surely prospects never looked so bright for an increased prosperity to the farming community than at present. The cattle easily wintered and now on the hills, ploughing and seeding well under way, fine showers of rain and beautiful bursts of sunshine, such a state of things should (if anything will) have the effect of rendering the heart of the farmer light, and in the future his pocket correspondingly heavy, at least such is our wish.

VERNON.
Vernon News.

Mr. W. T. Thompson, who returned from the south on Thursday last, has been busily engaged during his absence in visiting mining properties, several of which he has bonded, in the interest of an eastern syndicate of capitalists. The most important of these options is that on the Oro Denaro mine, which is located at Summit camp, on the divide between Kettle River and Kootenay, and which has been bonded by Mr. Thompson for $30,000. This proposition carries over 30 per cent. copper and a little over $10 in gold, and is perhaps the largest body of copper ore ever discovered in America. Its value may be estimated from the fact that the famous Calumet and Hecla mine in Michigan, which has paid over forty-one millions in dividends, only carries from 3 to 6 per cent of copper. The Oro Denaro seems to be the main body of ore of which the Emma claim, owned and worked by the Parett Smelting company of Butte, Montana, forms a part. Mr. Thompson has also secured an option on the Bruce claim on Ingram mountain, about three miles from Boundary City, which is a solid body of peacock copper ore running from 8 to 20 per cent. in richness. The Lead King mine has also been secured by him, and these with the red copper proposition will place in the control of the syndicate which he so energetically represents what promises to be the largest and most valuable series of claims in the district. Mr. Thompson says that it is almost impossible for an outsider to realize the extensive richness and claims that from these claims alone 50 train loads (not car loads) per day will yet be exported when railway transportation is furnished.

Mr. Joseph Christien came in from the Mission yesterday with a petition which he forwarded to the lieutenant-governor. This petition, which was signed by about 60 settlers of the Mission valley, asked that no further steps be taken at present toward forming that district into a municipality. It is probable that this will have the effect of giving the scheme a set back for at least this year.

The committee appointed at the recent meeting of the fruit growers have since been engaged gathering statistics relating to the amount of produce which can be shipped from this district. They expect to have their report ready next week.

On Wednesday morning Mr. John B. Donald of Kelowna was brought up on remand before Mr. Price Ellison, S. M., Mayor Martin and Mr. E. J. Tronson, J. P., charged with falsifying and mutilating the accounts of the firm with the intention of defrauding the creditors. After the evidence had been taken and the case summed up, the court adjourned for three-quarters of an hour, and, on resuming, the stipendiary magistrate said that it was the unanimous opinion of the court that they were compelled to commit the prisoner for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction. Bail was fixed at $1000, as before, $500 from himself, and two sureties of $250 each.

ATTACKED THE PRESIDENT.

An Over Zealous Methodist Minister Uses the Word "Drunkard."

Salem, Mass., April 6.—The attack of Rev. Dr. Lansing on the President, in his address here Wednesday night, has not been well received. One well known clergyman said to-day: "I wish Dr. Lansing had taken some other time and place to attack the President that our Methodist conference. It is very strange we had no intimation of the charge in advance and I sincerely hope he has not been misinformed by making such a charge. It is too bad." Similar utterances have been heard from the clergymen here in attendance. Dr. Lansing, in an evening Boston paper, is quoted as expressing doubt that he used the word "drunkard" in referring to the President. Many of the clergy positively testify to the accuracy of the published reports.

That Tired Feeling, Constipation and Pain in the Back

Appetite and Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Chas. Steele
St. Catherine's, Ont.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"For a number of years I have been troubled with a general tired feeling, shortness of breath, pain in the back, and constipation. I could get only little rest at night on account of the pain and had no appetite whatever. I was that tired in my limbs that I gave out before half the day was gone. I tried a great number of medicines but did not get any permanent relief from any source until, upon recommendation of a friend, I purchased a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which made me feel better at once. I have continued its use, having taken three bottles, and

A TRAGEDY RECALLED.

THE STORY OF A WOMAN WHO HAS SUFFERED DEEP AFFLICTION.

Intense Mental Strain and Sleepless Nights Brought Her Almost to the Verge of the Grave—Help Came When Hope Had Almost Fled.

Mrs. Sarah Wood, widow of the late Alex. Wood of North Elmsley, Lanark Co., has had more sorrow than usually falls to the lot of human beings, and it is no wonder that, under the intense mental strain, she was completely prostrated, and her friends are rejoicing with her that she has again been restored to health. To a reporter she told the following story:—"Until about three years ago I had always been in good health, except for the occasional spasmodic headaches which bothered me for some years. I am now sixty-three years of age, and my troubles came as much by mental anguish and sleepless nights as by overtaxing my physical system. Two years ago last August my son, W. J. Wood was killed on the C. P. R. in a collision, and his lifeless, mangled body was brought home. Six weeks later my sister, Luckey, of Kitley, was foully murdered. During these days I was taking care of my youngest daughter, Mrs. O. Bissell, near Merrickville, who was ill with consumption and who died four months later. Few people have been called upon to undergo so much affliction, and with sleepless nights and days of labor I became reduced to almost a living skeleton. In the fall of 1894 I was obliged to take my bed, where I lay for several weeks hovering between life and death. During this time I was under the care of a doctor, but his treatment did not help me much. My head now continually troubled me and a severe pain in my back, just above my left hip, caused me great agony. I had heard a great deal about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and determined to give them a trial. Before the second box was entirely gone my headache disappeared and I found myself growing stronger, and after taking the pills for a time longer, the pain in my back disappeared also. I then felt so well that I decided to visit another daughter who lives near Merrickville, determining to take the Pink Pills until thoroughly restored. In passing through Smith's Falls, I procured more pills, but found afterwards they were a counterfeit, as I did not then know that they were not sold in bulk. The result was that my old infirmities began to return and I began to mistrust that the pills were not genuine, and sent into Merrickville for more. A comparison soon showed that, while both pills were colored Pink, the ones I had got in Smith's Falls were spurious, for they were not exactly the same shape and did not look the same when the two were compared. As soon as I began the use of the genuine Pink Pills I began to grow better, and after the use of a few more boxes, found myself entirely cured, and I am now enjoying as good health as I ever did in my life. I believe that if it had not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I would have been in my grave, and I am glad to give my testimony, hoping that some poor sufferer may be made well as I was.

Mrs. Wood's unfortunate experience with imitation Pink Pills make it necessary to again impress upon the public that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, by the loose, hundred, or ounce, or in any shape except in the company's boxes, every one of which is enclosed in a wrapper printed in red ink, bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." If these pills are offered in any other form, even pink in color, they are imitations and should be promptly refused. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail. Imitations are worthless and may be dangerous to health.

SOUNDS LIKE A BLUFF.

Report That Venezuela Will Go to War with England.

Washington, April 5.—It is stated by persons in a position to speak with authority that as soon as Venezuela is convinced that Great Britain has finally decided not to arbitrate or settle the boundary dispute as suggested by the United States, through Ambassador Bayard, the southern republic will regretfully but resolutely resort to what she regards as her only course—a resort to force. It is declared that her people are ready to see their homes and their cities desolated and laid in ashes rather than submit to what they regard as a national dishonor.

It is said the contention with Great Britain is not so much one of territory as of sentiment. So firmly impressed have the people become with this that the opinion is expressed that they would rather see the country go out of existence than pass into the practical control of foreign hands.

A strong feeling exists in Venezuela that the United States will not stand idly by if a resort to force is made. It is understood that the position of Great Britain in declining the suggestion of the United States for the settlement of the trouble with Venezuela is substantially as follows:

1. Great Britain takes the position that the question of arbitration was once before proposed by Venezuela. At that time the foreign office gave the subject most careful attention and submitted a reply embodying a proposition to arbitrate certain definite subjects of controversy. To this proposition Venezuela has never made a reply, either accepting or rejecting the proposed basis of arbitration. Under the circumstances it is not desirable to proceed to a second proposal of arbitration when the first remains unanswered.

2. In any event there are certain portions of that territory to which Venezuela lays claims which under no circumstances will be made the subject of arbitration, as they are recognized portions of the British domain, and are not therefore subjects on which the aid of arbitrators could be invoked.

3. The subject is one between Great Britain and Venezuela, so that the good offices of the United States are not regarded as essential to a settlement, as it is not understood that the United States has assumed a protectorate over Venezuela, or that her interest is other than that of a friendly government.

INDIGNANT SINGLE TAXERS.

Object to Being Called Robbers—An Open Debate Proposed.

"Anything new?" queried a reporter of a well known local Single Tax man. "Nothing," was the short reply, and the Times man passed on his hunt for the one thing needful. "I take that back," said a voice from behind, and, turning round to ascertain the owner of the voice the reporter was face to face with the afore-mentioned disciple of Henry George. "Yes, I take it all back. We are after the old lady's scalp." And without waiting for any questions as to the meaning of this startling but ominous information the reporter was told that at a meeting of the executive of the Single Tax club it had been decided to have a public debate on account of an article in the Colonist reflecting on the honesty of all those who believe in reform through the Single Tax. "The Colonist," said he, excitedly, "calls us robbers, but the law does not look upon us in the same light. The policeman does not shadow us; in fact he gives us a very wide berth. We should like to reply to such spiteful vaporings through the columns of that journal, but we cannot expect fair treatment at the hands of those who control it. We do not look upon the Times as a Single Tax paper by any means, but we have never been denied by it the opportunity of replying to our critics. That, to my mind, is the duty of a newspaper towards its readers—hear both sides. The debate will take place at our next meeting and the man who inserted the article in the Colonist, or any other man, is invited to be present and defend it, and, mind you, it will be fair play all round. We will do justice to our enemies. That's something new."

The newspaper man passed on, smiling at the intense earnestness of a man who thinks that Single Tax will cure all the social and political ills that man is heir to.

TWO OPERATIONS.

BOTH FAILURES.

A Case of Kidney Complaint that Would Not Yield to Surgery or Medicine Until B. B. B. Was Tried.

Gentlemen:—After having undergone two operations for Kidney Complaint without securing the least relief, and hearing of some remarkable cures made by B. B. B. in our neighborhood, I decided to try it. I was given up by the doctors after the operations failed, and it was providential that I heard of B. B. B. After the use of six bottles I experienced so great relief and so great a change for the better that I felt the good effects would be lasting, as indeed they have been. The seventh bottle perfectly cured me, and I am now stronger and better than I ever was before. People who saw me before I took B. B. B. and who see me now can scarcely believe that I am the same person.

DOMESTIC SERVANTS' UNION.

Organization Meeting to be Held in London To-Morrow.

London, April 6.—The conference of servant girls will be held at Battersea hall to-morrow afternoon for the purpose of resuscitating the Domestic Servants' Union, an organization of housemaids on the lines of the older trades unions which was brought into existence some time ago, but was allowed to languish owing to the fact that it encountered strong opposition from the feminine employers of parlor maids and queens of the kitchen. This is the second union of the kind brought into existence. The first one, organized in 1890, under the title of the Provident and Protective Servants League, had the patronage of such eminent personages as the late Cardinal Manning, the Bishop of London and the Prince of Wales. It went to pieces, however, owing to the cropping out of petty jealousies between the servants themselves.

American Commissioners Advises Government to Withdraw From Samoa.

Lands Obtained by Citizens and the Government o Little Value, He Says.

Washington City, April 5.—The report of W. L. Chambers, United States land commissioner to Samoa, dated February 3, 1895, was made public to-day. Mr. Chambers was one of the three commissioners appointed by the treaty powers of Great Britain, Germany and the United States under the provisions of the Berlin treaty, to adjust and settle all claims of aliens to lands in Samoa. The annual meeting of the committee was held January 4, 1894, at Apia. The report includes all the title papers to Samoan lands, and is of considerable value. An exhibit attached to the report shows that the total number of claims filed before the committee was 3492. Of these 1422 were Germans, 1754 British, 307 American, 326 French and 13 miscellaneous. The total claims aggregated 1,691,892 acres, while the island contains 950,000 acres. Only 8 per cent. of the claims were confirmed.

The vast bulk of the acreage claimed by Americans was rejected because of the manifestly inadequate consideration given for it, and because the titles were defective under several of the provisions of the treaty. About 21,000 acres were confirmed to Americans. Most of them belonged to a corporation made up of San Francisco capitalists. "At the time the investigation took place," says Mr. Chambers, "this corporation was insolvent, and is still reported insolvent. The titles were confirmed to certain trustees. None of the stockholders reside in Samoa and so far as my investigation of the matter went, none of them had ever resided there, nor has the company or its trustees an agent in the country. Deducting the land confirmed to this company, I think it is a safe estimate that not exceeding 2000 acres were confirmed to American claimants. Almost all the land of the San Francisco company is sale and is liable to be sold, if at all, to England's or Germany's subjects rather than to Americans, for, whatever inducements there may be for English or German investments in the Samoan islands, I cannot see that there exists any reason for further American investments."

Continuing, Mr. Chambers said he heard of only 19 bona fide American subjects in the country, exclusive of officials, and does not believe there are thirty of them there all told, including those who claim citizenship through naturalization. He says there are several well-to-do Americans engaged in mercantile pursuits, one of whom is the wealthiest man in the land of the San Francisco company is for native women and will probably never return to the United States. Says Mr. Chambers:

"I have thus been explicit in reference to the property owned by Americans as well as to the number of Americans in the country, in order that the department may know our relationship to Samoa as it was developed in the course of the investigations into land titles, and because I conceive it my duty to let our government know how insignificant such interests really are."

In reference to Pango-Pango bay, Mr. Chambers says that the claim of the U. S. government was examined and confirmed, but the concession is by no means as valuable as the American public seem to think. What are thought to be the most valuable parts of the shore of the bay have never been acquired by the United States. The harbor is so deep and the bay so small that not more that three or four ships could be anchored there in case the wind was blowing either into the mouth of the harbor or off shore. He recommends that if our rights are considered to be really of value, steps should be taken to acquire such additional rights as may make those already held of use. He argues, however, that the station is not likely to be of further use, and thinks the advisability of making further investments there should be fully considered before taking any further steps in the matter.

"NO POLITICS."

At the Board of Trade meeting President Flumerfelt expressed the hope that —when calling attention to the presence of Messrs. Earle and Prior, who would be pleased to receive suggestions to guide them in their parliamentary duties—that politics would be kept out of the discussion. The politic president no doubt meant partyism and not politics, for in his capacity of Board of Trade president, protectionist and Conservative, he is aware that so long as the tariff is a political question the Board of Trade cannot ignore politics. There surely is no other question more clearly within the sphere of a commercial organization. The idea that Mr. Flumerfelt wished to convey, however, was that a repetition of a former offence, when Sir Tupper was publicly told at the board meeting that it was a high official's hope that he would still be minister of marine after the general elections, would be a clear violation of the unwritten rules of the association.

RED PARLOR TRIBUTE.

Senator Boulton, of Manitoba, who was formerly a staunch Conservative and protectionist, is one of the men the Conservatives do not care to hear mentioned these days. In a recent letter to the Toronto Star the senator shows from Statistician Johnson's statement that the people of Canada were taxed $90,000,000 in one year to afford inordinate profits for the Red Parlor, and he justly concludes that "if the tariff was changed so that the necessities of life were free, that $90,000,000 of taxation would disappear, and remain in the pockets of the people, to buy necessaries with, and to that extent their purchasing power would be increased." He proceeds:

To quote a few of the manufacturing industries from the census returns to emphasize more particularly the correctness of the above statement, I select "needles" and three factories, employing in all seventeen hands. The duty collected upon $44,000 foreign imports is $13,000. The capital invested in these factories is $16,000; wages paid, $5,500; raw material, $2,000. Adding interest on capital, wages and material together and deducting it from $13,000 (value of needles manufactured), we have $4,500 overplus on $8,000 annual cost of home manufacturing, or, in all, duty on imports and tax on home manufacture. The needle women of Canada are bearing $17,500 of taxation on their prime necessity for employment.

Take another industry—boot and shoe laces. Thirty per cent. duty collected on $42,800 imports is $12,840. One factory, with a capital of $12,000, employs three men and twenty women; $5,000 paid in wages; $4,500 in raw materia; value of product, $15,000. We have here an excess of $5,000 on an annual cost of production, amounting to $10,000. Boot and shoe laces, therefore, bear $17,840 taxation.

Take another industry—braces and suspenders showing a large difference between imports and home manufacture. Imports, $68,000; duty collected, $24,000; six factories, employing twenty men, forty women and two girls, produce $160,000 value of product; fixed capital, $9,500; working capital, $44,000; wages paid, $16,000, cost of raw material, $101,000. Adding interest, wages and raw material together, we have here a surplus of $48,000, or a revenue tax of $24,000 and a protective tax of $48,000, on braces and suspenders; total, $72,000.

Take another industry—nails and tacks. Value of imports, $40,000; duty collected, $15,000; home production comes from twelve factories, employing 300 men, 64 women and 41 boys. The fixed capital invested is $155,000; the working capital is $247,000; the wages paid are $152,000; raw material, $457,000; value of articles produced, $744,000. We have here a surplus of $103,000 over the cost of manufacturing home product, with a duty collected of $15,000, making a tax of $118,000 on nails and tacks, of which the revenue only gets the benefit of $15,000.

Taking a larger industry as an example—the Massey Manufacturing Co.—he has here one factory employing 575 hands, with a fixed capital of $752,000, and a working capital of $1,000,000; interest on same at 8 per cent., $100,000. Wages paid, $249,000; cost of raw material, $350,000; total value of articles produced, $1,250,000. The difference between cost of production and value of articles produced is in this case $555,000. The total value of all articles of agricultural implements produced in Canada is $6,900,000, being about $2,000,000 above the interest on capital, wages and cost of raw material. This is a protective tax borne by the farmers in consequence of the customs duty, which in the trades and navigation returns of 1893, from which I've been quoting, only brought in a revenue of $100,000.

In going through the list of manufacturies furnished by the census, it will be found that in all cases the difference between the estimated value and the actual cost is about equal to the duty imposed.

The figures which Senator Boulton thus arrays in graphic form are exceedingly interesting to the consumer, but the Red Parlor advocates will hardly thank him for doing this service to the public.

One of the Red Parlor organs warns the people of Yale-Cariboo against Mr. Bostock as a free trader, another says he has abandoned free trade and become a protectionist, while others push him all over the economic field as fancy prompts them. In the meantime Mr. Bostock himself declares that he is in full accord with the Liberal platform as laid down at the Ottawa convention, and that is enough to satisfy any Liberal as to his position. The Tory journals affect to despise Mr. Bostock as a candidate, and yet they go to a great deal of trouble to belabor him—which is rather inconsistent.

The Midway Advance, which accurately reflects public opinion in the northern part of the Yale district, says: "With the general policy of the Liberal party we heartily concur; and we firmly believe that under a Liberal government, Canada, with her great natural resources, with her immense territorial possessions, her mineral and forest wealth, will speedily assume a position among the nations that is her rightful due. Locally, it is the duty of the electors to support the candidate who will promise to aid in the important work of development. This end can not be accomplished until restrictive measures are swept away."

Says the Colonist: "On the 27th of last month the Times, in order to show what dreadful burdens the people of protectionist countries have to bear, declared that in France $140,000,000 was paid into the treasury of the nation for stamps alone." It so happens that the statement that has caused our neighbor so much mental unrest was taken verbatim from its own columns. The Times did not declare anything; it merely quoted from a Colonist dispatch and offered a few comments. We are willing to admit that we erred in taking any statement from our neighbor's columns without due verification.

In a Winnipeg paper appears the following Ottawa dispatch: "The British Columbia government has discovered that its claim for increased subsidy on the alleged ground that 11,059 Indians in the northern portion of the province were not enumerated in 1891 is unfounded, and has sent in a revised claim for an increase of subsidy of 2,734 persons said not to have been enumerated." Since the provincial government has thrown off so liberal a discount surely the Ottawa authorities cannot longer refuse to acknowledge the justice of the claim. Time was, though, when the Times was abused like a pickpocket by the government organs because it ventured the opinion that the Dominion government would refuse to see those 11,000 Indians.

BEHRING SEA PATROL.

H. M. S. Pheasant to Leave for the North on April 20th.

A telegram was received yesterday by the naval authorities from the admiral of the Pacific fleet, who has arrived at Panama in H. M. S. Royal Arthur, ordering H. M. S. Pheasant to prepare for sea at once. The Pheasant is to patrol Behring sea during the close sealing season to enforce the Paris regulations, or any new regulations that might be agreed to by the two governments. She will leave about April 20th if not sooner. H. M. S. Nymphe will arrive from Honolulu about April 10th or before the Pheasant goes north.

The flagship Royal Arthur has arrived at Panama sooner than was given out in the programme published a short time ago. She will therefore be here about April 21st or the date originally intended before the late programme was given out.

Following is a dispatch from Panama regarding the flagship: "The British cruiser Royal Arthur, with Admiral Stephenson, arrived this morning from Callao. From one of her officers I learn that landing parties are being organised and were drilled during the voyage. The officer said the objective point of the vessel was Corinto, Nicaragua, where it was likely she would land men if Great Britain's claims against Nicaragua for the expulsion of Consular Agent Hatch was not satisfied. The Royal Arthur will await further instructions from the British admiralty before proceeding to Nicaragua.

THE PENITENTIARY SCANDAL.

The re-appointment of James Fitzsimmons as deputy warden of the British Columbia penitentiary continues to be the principal topic of discussion on the street and public opinion regarding the matter has not changed, nor is the general indignation abated. The appointment has created consternation in the Conservative ranks, and many prominent members of that party who have been taking an active interest in the organization of the Liberal-Conservative association in this city, and branches throughout the district, have publicly stated their intention of withdrawing from the party. A dozen visits of the Liberal leaders could not have done for the Liberal party in British Columbia what the Conservative government has done by this amazing appointment. A special meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association has been called for to-morrow night, and it is no secret that its object is to discuss this one question. Unless the government can be induced to rectify the mitake, the Conservative association, it is safe to say, will practically pass out of existence.

The order-in-council re-appointing Jas. Fitzsimmons to the deputy wardenship was passed on March 25, and he was instructed to report for duty as soon as possible.—Columbian.

AN ANTI-TOXINE HORSE.

He Belongs to the New York Health Board, and is Worth $5000.

"Yes, sir; 'Anti-Toxine Bill' is what we call him, and for an anti-toxine horse he hasn't got an equal in the city. He cost us $10, but he could not be bought now for $5000."

This is what an attendant at the stables of the New York College of Veterinary Surgeons, in East Fifty-Seventh street, said yesterday, pointing to a large gray horse which stood in stall No. 7. Of the 50 or more horses now being inoculated with diphtheria toxine by veterinary surgeons of the health board, in order that they may furnish anti-toxine, none is so valuable as the one known as "Bill" or simply "No. 7." Since his acquisition by the surgeons last November he has furnished 15 quarts of serum, and has no doubt saved the lives of scores of children in this city. These fifteen quarts of serum, or anti-toxine fluid, represents about 45 quarts of blood which have been extracted from No. 7. Ordinarily the loss of so much blood would result in the death of a horse, but the process of extracting has been conducted so skilfully and gradually that the subject has apparently thrived on it. This is proved by the fact that he has gained 35 pounds in the last two months.

Before assuming his new role as a dispenser of anti-toxine, Bill was an ordinary draught horse. There is nothing in him to attract special notice. He stands about 15 hands high, is gray in color, weighs 1170 pounds, and is seven years old. Most of his life he has travelled up and down over the cobble stones of the city in front of a brewer's wagon, all unconscious of the $5000 worth of anti-toxine stored in his blood.

That "Bill" is conscious of the conspicuous part he plays in furnishing this valuable fluid is indicated by the haughty way in which he carries himself. His services are no less recognized by Dr. W. H. Park, the surgeon in charge, and his assistants. He is as carefully attended as a patient in a hospital. His temperature and pulse are taken twice a day, and his weight is recorded at short intervals. Exercise, too, is not forgotten.

When No. 7 was purchased he was suffering from a diseased hoof, and his owner was glad to get rid of him for $10. His present value, $5000, is not fictitious, for if it were necessary there could be drawn from him an amount of anti-toxine, which, if sold at retail, would realize $5000.

Toxine is a poisonous substance formed by the diphtheria bacilli in their growth. Anti-toxine of diphtheria is a substance derived from the blood of animals, generally horses, which have been rendered immune to the diphtheria bacilli through repeated injections of their toxine. When the diphtheria toxine is injected in a horse the animal at first is greatly affected, but after a while does not suffer from the process, and his blood soon becomes charged with the counteracting fluid.

The anti-toxine is obtained by extracting the blood, and letting it coagulate, when the serum oozes out. To obtain the blood an incision is made in the neck of the horse and a glass tube is inserted. The blood flows into a flask, which is afterwards sealed so as to allow the entrance of air, but not of dust. The operation gives little pain.

It is not known why one horse should give better serum than another. "Bill" furnishes serum twice as strong as any that has been imported.

Since the introduction of anti-toxine there has been much complaint from the physicians throughout the city to the effect that the cost of the fluid has been too great to allow of its use among the poorer classes. They claim that when a health officer is called in to administer anti-toxine the regular physicians frequently lose the case. President Wilson announced yesterday that if the Anti-Toxine Bill is signed by the governor today this difficulty will be obviated. The health board intends giving anti-toxine free to everyone who is too poor to buy it, and to reduce the existing prices of the fluid nearly one-half, so as to put it within reach of all physicians and their patients.—New York Times.

—There was only one case heard in police court this morning, that of Sewell Sims, arrested yesterday for having some stolen carpenters' tools in his possession. It was learned by the police that the tools had been stolen from the cabin of George Voltz on Humboldt street, with whom Sims had been living. When arraigned in court this morning Sims entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to two months' imprisonment by Magistrate Macrae. Voltz is the man recently imprisoned for a couple of weeks for assaulting Aaron Lewis.

—At a meeting of the Teachers' Association held yesterday afternoon final arrangements were made for the payment of the expenses of the funeral of the late Neil Heath. The teachers will contribute two and a half per cent. of their monthly salaries for that purpose. The matter of paying substitutes was brought up for discussion. A number of teachers held that it was unjust on the part of the trustees to ask the teachers to pay their full salary to substitutes, who had not the same responsibility as the regular teachers. A committee was appointed to interview the trustees on the matter. Mr. Tait handled the teaching of H. C. F. and L. C. M. in a very clever manner and by numerous examples on the black board showed his method of teaching these subjects. P. J. L. Harris appeared before the association on behalf of the Standard Dictionary and explained to the teachers its superiority over all other dictionaries.

GOVERNMENT MEMORIALIZED

On Sealing Claims by the B ard of Trade—Discussion on British Pacific,

Indian Reserve and Telegraph Lines—Board Meeeting to be Held Monthly.

The board of trade will hold meetings monthly instead of quarterly. That was decided at a meeting yesterday afternoon. Sealing claims, the Indian reserve, the British Pacific and a telegraph connection with the Washington mainland were discussed.

A petition was received, signed by several retail traders of the city. The petition stated that a daily report of chattel mortgages, bills of sale, judgments, extensions and partnership changes could be made at a comparatively small cost per month and particulars of real estate transactions and mortgages of real estate could likewise be secured for a small sum. And the petition that such information be supplied to members of the board who should have access and pay pro rata for the reports, and make a strictly confidential use of them. This would give security to the retail trade. The petition was signed by fourteen representative firms.

Robert Ward favored the idea and said it had worked well in Truro, N.S.

Wm. Wilson supported the idea. It would give that security to the retail trade that Bradstreet's and Dunn's gave to the wholesale trade.

Mr. Ellis moved to refer it to the council of the board and the signers to submit a report for ratification.

T. M. Henderson said the Board of Trade would next go into the grocery or drug business.

Mr. Brownlee did not believe in the movement. He thought the movement had been suggested to, and had not originated with, the retailers at all.

Robert Ward said the motion of Mr. Ellis only committed to the principle.

Mr. Brownlee warned the board that they would get themselves in a mess.

Mr. Bone said he signed the petition and argued in its favor.

A vote was taken, and the motion of Mr. Ellis carried by 18 to 10.

Lindley Crease brought up the question of the boundary line between British Columbia and Alaska. He wrote asking that a standing committee be appointed.

Mr. Crease referred to the action of the Board of Trade of Seattle, and thought Victoria Board of Trade should take action. The committee being in British Columbia would do a great deal of good. A quantity of information could be given the authorities. He moved the appointment of a standing committee.

D. R. Ker seconded the motion. He said the Americans claimed the boundary should be from the coast ten marine leagues and they contended that no chain of mountains existed; they were all peaks. The subject should be brought to a focus at once. It was all important that British Columbians got ports on British soil, and got there to trade first. It was hard to displace first comers.

Resolution carried.

The chairman nominated Lindley Crease, D. R. Ker, M. T. Johnson, Thos. Earle, M.P., and F. B. Gregory as the committee.

President Hendry, of the Kootenay Mining and Smelting Company, wrote sending samples of minerals. The letter said several specimens of ore had been forwarded. "It is my belief, with the advantage of only conservative protection, there will be on the Kootenay lake and territory adjacent and tributary to lake communication, in a very few years, a mineral development that will astonish the mining world and give employment to thousands of men at the highest average wages paid in any country, $3 a day. The lead market of Canada is now supplied with both pig and white lead—as I am informed—with lead mined and smelted in Mexico by cheap Mexican labor, which is paid 80 cents a day, and it is in the hands of your legislators, whether an industry like ours shall prosper in a country that has an empire of mineral territory, containing enough, gold, silver, copper and silver-lead ores to entitle it to a first place with any country as a producer of mineral wealth."

Robert Ward said the Dominion government refused to increase the duty on lead, which was $8 a ton. It was within the province of the government to foster the industry.

Wm. Wilson said the Kootenay country would have to get a market. The United States was the only market. Lead in the United States was worth one cent a pound more than in England. He advocated reciprocity in lead. The C. P. R. might get $20 a ton and that was all the good protection would do.

Mr. Prior said the Americans were not fools to open their markets.

The letter was received.

Robert Ward resigned as trustee on account of a contemplated absence from the province. Referred to council with power to appoint a successor.

Mr. Cuthbert moved to hold meetings of the board monthly instead of quarterly. The business men had not a chance to express their views and the business of the board was too much in the hands of the council.

Mr. Piercy agreed with Mr. Cuthbert. Many members of the board had no opportunity to say anything upon any subject that might come up.

Lindley Crease argued against the change, alleging that the attendance was already too slim.

Gus. Leiser was also against the change. The board should devote itself to matters of greater importance.

Robert Ward suggested that the motion be referred to the committee having in charge the framing of the by-laws. He would favor monthly meetings if interest could be increased.

Mr. Cuthbert thought that the chambers of commerce in England met monthly. He said it was almost impossible to get new members appointed on the council. If a member had to wait three months to introduce a subject it lost all its interest. The objection did not meet the case. Who was to decide what was unnecessary? It was not in the province of any member to say what was important. What was gained by monthly meetings? The interest of all that was necessary to the good being of all institutions.

Mr. Brownlee said he would support the motion. He thought there was not sufficient representation of new members in the council. He believed that interest would increase with more frequent meetings. He could think of two or three vital questions that would require whole days to discuss.

Gus Leiser said Mr. Cuthbert had changed front very suddenly. Only a short time ago Mr. Cuthbert wrote that the British Columbia board of trade was no good anyway.

Mr. Cuthbert replied and repeated that the Board of Trade was no good to him unless meetings were held monthly. The motion carried by a vote of 13 to 10.

The chair said that the local representatives to the Dominion house were present to receive suggestions. He hoped politics would be left aside. There was the Indian reserve question, beacons and lights and the old San Pedro wreck.

F. H. Gregory then asked permission to introduce a resolution re sealing claims. Permission was granted and the resolution read

Whereas a memorial has been forwarded by the owners and masters interested in the compensation to be paid by the United States government under the Paris award, through the Hon. Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, K. C. M. G., Q. C., M. P., minister of justice and attorney-general for Canada, for transmission to Her Majesty's Imperial Government with such recommendation as to him may seem expedient and just;

And whereas among other things embodied the memorialists did state as follows:

1. That the congress and senate of the United States having failed to carry out the recommendation of the executive of the said United States that the sum of $425,000 should be paid Her Majesty's government as compensation for the Behring Sea seizures, and which amount, though less by nearly $200,000 than the amount of said claims, as filed in Paris by Her Majesty's government, your memorialists agreed to accept, payable in December last, in order to secure a prompt and final settlement;

2. And in view of the fact that the said congress and senate have so far failed and authorized to provide for a commission in accordance with the findings of the tribunal of arbitration at Paris, to ascertain and adjudge the amount which the government of the United States should pay to Her Majesty's government as such compensation;

3. Your memorialists humbly appeal to Her Majesty's government that, pending the final adjustment by said commission or otherwise of the claims in question, and the payment of the government of the United States of America of the amount so ascertained, Her Majesty's government will provide in respect of such compensation for the payment of the said sum of $425,000 to your memorialists, on account of their claims for compensation as aforesaid;

Therefore be it resolved that the board of trade of British Columbia respectfully presses said matter upon the notice of the federal government at Ottawa and urgently recommends that should the imperial government be disinclined to grant the prayer of said petition, or from any cause be unable to comply with the reasonable and respectful demand made that the federal government will see the justice and the expediency of placing such sum upon the estimates, or by way of separate and distinct legislation as will enable the Canadian government to relieve the disabilities under which sealers labor, by the payment to them of the amount due or recently agreed upon.

C. E. Renouf said the Board of Trade should emphatically deny that most of the claims were those of American citizens.

The chair replied that it had been set forth. Carried.

The question of the San Pedro wreck was brought up by C. E. Renouf, who claimed the wreck should be removed.

Mr. Earle replied that the department had told the owners that the wreck had been lying long enough.

Gus Leiser said the Indian reserve question should be brought to the attention of the Dominion government. He regarded this as a good time on the eve of an election.

Mr. Earle said that the Dominion government would take hold of the matter as soon as the provincial government was ready. Joint action had to be taken.

Wm. Wilson said that $1,800,000 were paid to the government on goods entered for consumption here and there had been added $500,000 for goods in transit. What returns did British Columbia get? A subsidy of $200,000. There was a loss of $125,000 in cash each month. Money had been going out all along, and now there were $17,000,000 in mortgages. He thought British Columbia could ask a grant. The Dominion government had granted subsidies to eastern undertakings and $750,000 were going to be granted as a subsidy to a fast line of steamers on the Atlantic. That sum represented 4 per cent on $18,000,000, and less than half that sum, if guaranteed by the Dominion government, would put the British Pacific through. He thought the government could well give a guarantee of $320,000 a year; that was 4 per cent. on $18,000,000, and the railway could be put through.

Mr. Earle said no bona fide company had been formed for the construction of the British Pacific and no money had been asked. The government would give the matter attention when application had been made by the proper company.

The inference from Mr. Wilson's statement was that the Ottawa government was opposed to the construction of the British Pacific.

Mr. Wilson replied that Mr. Rithet and others were bona fide persons. If the provincial government could give a guarantee grant conditionally, why could not the Ottawa government give support conditionally?

Gus Leiser said it was not fair to ask the Ottawa government to support something of which even the great promoters themselves knew very little.

Mr. Prior said Mr. Rithet did not wish to ask aid yet. If they went to the government with a cock and bull story of a charter and a company in London, it would do them harm. When the thing was in proper shape the Ottawa government would not overlook it.

Mr. Gray said the resolution of Mr. Wilson was a huge joke. Mr. Wilson did not believe there was a possibility of the local members getting what he asked. He had heard his views on many occasions.

Gus Leiser said it was not policy to meddle in such matters.

Mr. Wilson said he did not see why an assurance could not be given, but he would withdraw his motion since it was stated the promoters did not wish it brought forward. Withdrawn.

Robert Ward brought forward the question of cable connection with the mainland of Washington. The Dominion government had an objection. It was believed that the objection existed on account of the C. P. R. controlling the telegraph service. He read from replies received from the department which simply shelved the subject.

Mr. Earle replied that if application were made permission would be granted. Sir John Thompson had taken a favorable view when the Fort Sheppard railway was up for discussion.

Mr. Ward asked for an authoritative utterance from the department through the local members.

Mr. Todd said permission had been refused time and time again.

Mr. Earle said he would try and get an authoritative statement from the department and communicate with the board.

D. R. Ker moved "that this board through Victoria's representatives in parliament direct the attention of the Dominion government to the importance and necessity of immediately constructing a stone beacon on Fiddle reef, with electric light; an iron buoy on the west side of West rock, off Sidney spit; and a light on Portluck point, Prevost island; and that copies of this resolution be handed to Messrs. Prior and Earle." Adopted.

The chair appointed W. Bone, H. E. Connon and J. B. Gordon as auditors, and the meeting concluded with the usual votes of thanks.

CUTTING DOWN EXPENSES.

Economy Being Practised in Earnest at Port Angeles.

Port Angeles, April 5.—For the first time in the history of Port Angeles her city officials are making a serious move toward retrenchment, which is evidenced by the fact that during the last quarter the actual running expences of the city were $1,519, while they amounted to $7,291 for the corresponding period last year. The yearly salaries of city officials amounted to $9,791 and this year they will receive but $2,270, a yearly saving of over $7,000. The city treasurer has recently issued a call for general fund and bond interest warrants, which, it is thought, will have a tendency to raise the market price of city paper.

Author of "A Modern Heathen."

The Famous Southern Novelist, Mrs. E. Burke Collins, Tells of Her Complete Recovery From Nervous Debility by the Use of Paine's Celery Compound.

The London Graphic, in its recent summing up of the half dozen successful novels of the year, includes Du Maurier's "Trilby," Hall Caine's "Manxman," Conan Doyle's "Sherlock Holmes," "The Heavenly Twins," and "Ships that Pass in the Night," Mrs. E. Burke Collins' "A Modern Heathen."

Speaking of the last work of the distinguished author, the Graphic says:—"What Geo. W. Cable's writings are to the Creoles of New Orleans, Miss Murfree to the rough strata of humanity among the Tennessee mountains, and Gertrude Atherton to California, so are E. Burke Collins' are to the Acadians of the Louisiana Pine Lands. In her latest work Mrs Collins has struck a new vein in literature, opening to the novel reading world a vision of the real life of the Acadians of the backwoods, among the wild, scarcely known region of the bayous and swamps of Louisiana."

Besides her novels she contributes each week short stories, sketches, etc., to the prominent magazines and to a great variety of other publications.

Although her writing has always been a labor of love, yet such incessant mental exertion, constantly harvesting the ideas of her brain without a single idle season or fallow time for rest and refreshment, could not fail to have its effect on the recuperative power of her nervous system. At one time she found herself tired out and weak from such uninterrupted work; she became nervous and incapable of work; she even saw nervous prostration staring her in the face. The general toning up that her system needed so badly she found in Paine's Celery Compound. To-day she is perfectly well and strong again, busy as ever with her brain and pen, and grateful to Paine's Celery Compound for the timely help when failure and trouble and despair seemed about to close round her and shut her off from everything that was dear to her. She says:—

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 21, 1894

"I wish to add my mite to the thousands of testimonials which you have received in regard to the efficacy of this wonderful compound. In my profession of author, such a strengthening medicine is invaluable. I have just completed my 95th novel, and constant work at the desk has weakened my constitution, injured my nerves, and I suffered from general debility. When a person in that condition writes continually, living in the realm of fiction and romance, the effect upon the nervous system is lamentable. I was weak and debilitated, suffering from insomnia, and was irritable and nervous. Four bottles of Paine's Celery Compound gave me strength, quieted my nerves and brought sleep to my pillow. I owe lasting gratitude to this wonderful medicine, and I take pleasure in adding mine to the long list of testimonials."

Yours gratefully,
312 Valence St. Mr. E. Burke Collins

Paine's Celery Compound is found to best supply the need of studious, sedentary people. Its extensive use by brain workers, both men and women, suffering from sleeplessness, indigestion, or other effects of a deficient nerve force shows its ability to feed tired emaciated, nervous tissues. Nothing else has ever possessed anything like the power of Paine Celery Compound to restore a healthy nervous tone to the entire body and to thoroughly cleanse the blood. School teachers, professional men, newspaper men, ministers public officials, men whose daily outlay of vitality, because of hard, trying, anxious work, is excessive, find renewed strength, not only of the nerves, but, through their healthy action, of the entire body, in Paine's Celery Compound. Its use shortly dispels headaches, rheumatic pain, dyspepsia, heart trouble, general debility and langour, and all other outward signs of the grave mischief that comes from disordered nerves and impure blood.

LOOK FOR AN HEIR.

Survivor of a Wealthy English Family Said to be in Alaska.

Port Townsend April 5.—Among the passengers on the steamship Al-Ki for Alaska was G. H. Cleveland, an English detective, who is going to the Yukon mines in search of an heir of an estate near London valued at something over $4,000,000. The detective told one of the vessel's officers of his mission and described the heir as being a descendent of an old English family which indirectly and somewhat remotely is related to the royal family. The name the young man is now supposed to be going under is John Adams, but that is not his correct title, which the officer withheld to avoid embarrassing the family on account of the publicity. He left home in 1875 and went to sea, visiting all parts of the world. Then the gold fever struck him, and after doing some mining in Australia, he was next heard of in South Africa. A month before the officer arrived at Cape Town Adams left for San Francisco, en route, he said, to the Yukon river. That was about the middle of last year. He is supposed to have gone into the mines last summer or is now one of the 300 who are now crossing the Chilcat range of mountains bound for Circle City. The search has been going on for three years and has cost $200,000. He is the second eldest son of a wealthy nobleman in England, and the eldest brother died in 1891. There are said to be four sisters living. Unless the rightful heir is found the property will revert to the government.

POISONOUS PORK.

Family of Six Persons Dying from the Effects of It.

Laporte, Ind., April 5.—The family of Peter Marks, consisting of six persons, are victims of poisoning and little hope is entertained of their recovery. The first symptoms developed Tuesday when the family was struck with the disease which baffled medical skill. The sick members continued to get worse, suffering the most intense agony, until a further diagnosis disclosed the fact that at noon Tuesday they had eaten freely of pork which was diseased. An examination of the meat showed that it was literally alive with trichinae and that it had been eaten in this condition.

REFORM BILLS DEAD.

No Hope for the New York Reform Bills now Pending.

New York, April 6.—In the opinion of Chauncey M. Depew, not one of the reform bills now pending before the legislature at Albany, will pass. Mr. Depew, during his brief stay in Albany, through talks with legislators, his knowledge of state affairs and other information brought to him, secured a clear insight into the tangled up situation at the state capital and he came to the conclusion that the reform bills were dead as far as this legislature was concerned. In speaking of affairs at Albany he said: "Perhaps if the Republican strength that is in favor of the bills, was concentrated on any one of the measures it might pass. I am told, however, that enough Republican votes can be secured by those opposed to these measures to secure the defeat of each one individually. The people are watching the trend of affairs in Albany and they will decide who is in the right and who is in the wrong and they will act as their own ideas dictate without instructions." Mr. Depew was asked what he believed would be the result should the legislature as predicted, pass reform bills. He said in reply that it would simply increase the Democratic vote in this city to an alarming extent at the next election.

THE CHITRAL EXPEDITION.

British Troops Drive Natives Through the Pass.

Calcutta, April 5.—A dispatch from Lalakand Pass, via Simla, says the operations of the British troops against Umra Khan, of Jandore, invader of Chitral, in the pass itself, were commenced by guides sent to clear the hills on the left. Maxim rapid fire guns were placed to the front whenever they got within range of the enemy, estimated to number 12,000. The latter, at first, made feeble resistance, but when the head of the pass was reached the action began in earnest and was general. The Gordon Highlanders and Scottish Borderers stormed the defenses of the enemy, composed of Swat Mullahs and Umra Khan's supporters. The British troops advanced with spirit, in spite of the fact that the roadway over the pass was cut away in various places and sangars or stone breastworks constructed at various points, which had to be carried at the point of the bayonet. Fifty of the British forces were wounded, including three officers severely and four slightly injured. Only three British officers were killed. The enemy lost fifty or 100 killed and wounded.

Additional advices from Simla say the loses of the British forces in Lalakand pass were more serious than at first reported. All the casualties reported are confined to the Second brigade, and no returns have yet been received from other brigades. Umra Khan is said to be collecting his forces, and it is thought he has captured two British officers.

CHESS.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York, April 6.—The National League of Chess Masters will be brought into existence to-night by a conference of enthusiasts of the game to be held at the Manhattan Chess Club. The affair has been promoted by J. W. Showalter, the noted player, who says that the sole object of the league will be to promote and arrange tournaments on a mammoth scale.

The standing in the chess tournament being played at the chess club rooms, Wilson hotel, is as follows: T. Piper, won 33; T. R. Hunnex, won 24, lost 6; B. Williams, won 18, lost 11; C. Schwengers, won 19, lost 6; P. T. Johnston, won 17, lost 17; F. C. Berridge, won 16, lost 6; A. Gounason, won 15 1-2, lost 12 1-2; C. E. Clarke, won 11, lost 17; B. Schwengers, won 19 1-2, lost 4 1-2; B. J. Perry, won 29, lost 10; Scowcroft, won 7, lost 17; R. H. Johnston, won 13, lost 16; E. Wolff, won 13, lost 16; Sergeant Scanlan, won 8, lost 11; Gunner Ayton, won 16 1-2 and lost 11 1-2; H. Lawrie, won 6, lost 11; C. D. Mason, won 9, lost 10; T. Lawrie, won 9, lost 14; B. G. THE WHEEL.

INTERNATIONAL RACE.

New York, April 6.—The chance of an international race between Zimmerman and Houben looks particularly bright. In a letter received by the "Wheel" yesterday George A. Hautier, the American rider, now in Paris, says that the match is a go and that Zimmerman will return to France. The matches, of which there are three, are to be held at the Velodrome de la Seine, the purse being $5000. The stipulation is that the Yankee must be in condition by the middle of June.

The wheelmen meet this afternoon at the city hall at 2 o'clock when they will take a long run.

WHIST.

The whist tournament of Far West lodge, K. of P., began in Castle Hall last night. At the close of the evening's play, the following was the standing: E. C. Kaufman and George Gilbert won one, M. Meis and J. Kirkwood won one, M. J. Conlin and W. P. Smith won one, J. Hughes and L. McNeill won one, T. Deasy and D. Henry lost one, Frank Le Roy and H. Pettigrew lost one, J. Byrne and J. Meis lost one, S. Jones and J. Cameron lost one.

Entries will remain open until Tuesday night.

THE RING.

AFTER O'DONNELL'S SCALP.

Youngstown, O., April 6.—O'Rourke, Dixon's backer, stated to-day that it is no fake about his offer to match Wolcott the light weight, against O'Donnell, as his money is posted. O'Rourke further stated that O'Donnell played him (O'Rourke) a mean trick when he refereed the Dixon-Plimmer fight some time ago, by giving a bout to the latter. Mr. O'Rourke says he will drive O'Donnell out of the country.

CANOEING.

The Westminster Canoe club will hold a club regatta on May 11. The club have elected as officers: Dr. D. W. Boggs commodore; F. J. Coulthard, vice-commodore; F. C. Blomfield, secretary-treasurer. The committees were struck as follows: Executive committee—Dr. R. E. Walker, J. I. M. Gray, C. B. Innes, A. B. Homer and C. Leamy; regatta committee, G. C. Scott, J. I. M. Gray, C. B. Innes, A. B. Homer and C. Leamy.

FOOTBALL.

An interesting game of football takes place this afternoon at Beacon Hill between the junior Rangers of Nanaimo and the junior Wanderers. Both teams have been in good training and an exciting game is looked for.

Late Locals.

—Spring capes are now the fashion and they are much sought after by the ladies at Partridge's, 86 Yates street.

—Rev. Alfred Fowler, B.A., of the Winnipeg presbytery, arrived on last evening's boat. He has come to take charge of the Central Presbyterian church, James Bay, for a few months. He comes with high commendations from both church and press of the east.

—The new club house of the canoe club is virtually completed in every detail except that the water for the baths has not yet been secured by connection with Jones' boat house. A substantial landing has been put in and all that remains undone in that respect is a pathway to Wharf street.

—To-morrow is Palm Sunday. There will be appropriate services at St. Andrew's Roman Catholic church. The palm will be distributed and the choir will sing the Hosanna, and also the "Gloria laus et Honor." No sermon will be preached the Gospel being the longest in the year. At vespers Bishop Lemmens will preach.

—Court Fernwood No. 1292 I. O. F. will hold a special meeting at the Odd Fellows' hall, Spring Ridge, on next Thursday evening. The business of the evening will be the consideration of the proposition to form a high court for British Columbia, Washington and Oregon, also the sending of representatives to a meeting to be held at Seattle on the 24th inst.

—Ald. John Macmillan has posted the following motions: "That the hackmen of the city be asked to send a delegation of five of their members to represent them in connection with the council regarding a re-arrangement of the hack stand." "That applications be called for the position of city engineer, applications to be received up to the 22nd instant, duties to begin May 1st, at a monthly salary of $175."

—Mail advices announce the arrival at Yokohama of the Umbrina, Brenda, Sadie Turpel, Borealis and City of San Diego. The Brenda was 53 days and the City of San Diego was 64 but the time of passage of the others is not stated. The leak in the Carlotta Cox has been located and repairs have no doubt been completed. The Casco and Diana left for the sealing grounds on March 13 and the Turpel on the 17th. No happenings of special interest are reported.

—The sale of seats for "Il Trovatore" will commence at Jamieson's at 10 a.m. Monday and it is expected that there will be a rush to secure the best seats ffering. The company had a full rehearsal last night at the theatre, and everything was very satisfactory. The performances are to be under the patronage of the following: His Honor Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Dewdney, His Worship Mayor and Mrs. Teague, Lieut.-Col. Rawstorne, R. M. A., Lieut.-Col. Peters, D. A. G., and the officers of the B. C. B. G. A. Some novelties in the way of dances are promised, and with a well drilled company of 85, including orchestra, a splendid redition of Verdi's great opera should be given

—There will very likely be a very good attendance at the concert at A. O. U. W. hall this evening in aid of the Law relief fund. The programme will include some excellent amateur talent and the tableaux have been carefully rehearsed. The concert in addition to its own merit has the recommedation of being for a most worthy charity. The programme is as follows: Mandolin selection, Misses Spring, Styles and Sehl; comic song, little Sammy Johnson; vocal solo, Mr. James Pilling; recitation, 'the Wreck of the Velos," Mrs. E. Lang; violin solo, Mr. E. Wolff; tableau, "No Rose without a Thorn;" vocal solo, Miss Amy Wolff; comic song, Mr. Wheeler; duet, Miss Wilson and Miss Wilkes; tableau, "The Valentine;" Big Four, Messrs. Chapman, Leroy, Jones and Sehl; vocal solo, Mrs. Dudgeon; vocal solo, Mr. T. Dooley; club swinging, Miss Wolff; tableau, "Good Night;" vocal solo, Mr. C. Rowlands; comic song, Mr. Richardson; recitation, Martin Egan; Tommy Atkins burlesque, Messrs. Dooley and Pilling; tableau, "National Group;" accompanist, Miss F. Leech; "God Save the Queen."

—Fernwood lodge, C.O.F., met on Friday evening, a large attendance of members being present, it being the occasion of an official visit from the D. D. G. M., J. Tagg, who, accompanied by officers of Dauntless lodge, were received with the honors of the order. One proposition for membership was received. The committee appointed to entertain the grand lodge delegates made their report, and were given full power to act. Under "good of the order" the D. D. G. M. gave a very satisfactory account of the statistical and financial condition of the lodges of No. 1 district. Half an hour was taken up in exemplifying the secret work of the order, after which a well prepared programme of songs, speeches and recitations was gone through. The members are requested to take notice that a hearty invitation is given by Dauntless lodge to be present at their next meeting, being the occasion of the D. D. G. M.'s official visit. An invitation is also given to be present at their meeting on the 23rd inst., when under "good of the order" a limelight exhibition will be given.

DON'T MAKE ANY MISTAKE

When ordering Soap. See that you get what you ask for. Most people are now using FINDLEY'S, and they say that for quality and easy washing it cannot be beaten. It is not hard on the hands and makes the clothes soft and clean with much less rubbing than ordinary laundry soap.

Give up the idea that you have to use Eastern Soap, and patronize an industry that is a benefit to your city. We are spending our money here, and by manufacturing a strictly first class article we intend to stay, and ask you one and all to give our different brands of Soap a trial, and we feel assured that you will never use any other.

Yours respectfully,

DENTAL NOTICE.

"A Word to the Wise is Sufficient."

Dental operations are not pleasant—the finest operators hurt; but care and practice reduce the pain to a minimum.

If you want your teeth filled without pain you can have the cavities dried out with absorbent cotton and filled with white cement, BUT NOT AT MY OFFICE. When a tooth is to be filled, I fill it properly in the first place, using gold for front teeth (Don't be persuaded your teeth are too soft for gold), and gold or amalgam as the patient wishes for the back teeth. I guarantee such fillings to stay in. If they don't it is my fault and you can have your money cheerfully refunded. I am here to stay and know that good dental work will build up a large practice in a short time, and this is what I am after.

I make artificial teeth of every description and they look natural, because I study the "temperament of the patient," and make the teeth in shade and size to match, and not a row of small white teeth, which look so ghastly you can tell a block away they are store teeth.

If you are not satisfied with the teeth I make, you don't have to take them. Under these conditions, it is worth your while to give me a trial. Work done on the easy monthly-payment system.
